It is also clarified that the application of a redemption gate shall apply uniformly to all redeeming Shareholders in the relevant Fund on that Business Day.

(b) Swing Pricing

It is clarified that where appropriate to the investment strategy of the Fund, and where deemed necessary, indirect costs primarily arising from market impact will be incorporated in the dilution adjustment amount on a best efforts basis, and the dilution adjustment shall be expressed as a percentage of net asset value.

(c) Suspension of subscriptions, repurchases and redemptions

It is clarified that:

- (i) the Company may, at any time having regard to the best interests of Shareholders and with prior notification to the Manager and in consultation with the Depositary, temporarily suspend the determination of the net asset value and the subscription and redemption of Shares in any Fund in the circumstances set out in the “Temporary suspension of valuation of the shares and of subscriptions and redemptions” section of the Prospectus;
- (ii) the Company shall not suspend redemptions without also suspending subscriptions and conversions/exchanges; and
- (iii) the period of suspension shall be temporary and limited to the period necessary to address the exceptional circumstances that justify the decision to suspend.

In addition to the above identified LMTs, the Manager and Company have other tools available for the purposes of managing the Company’s liquidity, including, but not limited to, redemptions in kind and the use of temporary borrowings in accordance with applicable regulatory limits.

The LMTs have been selected by the Manager to ensure fair treatment of Shareholders and facilitate effective liquidity risk management under different market conditions. The updates are intended to enhance transparency by providing a consolidated description of the LMTs available to the Company, together with additional information regarding their key features, the circumstances in which they may be applied and the manner in which they are intended to operate.

For the avoidance of doubt, no new LMT is being introduced. The list of available LMTs to the Company remains unchanged.

You do not need to take any action in response to this Notice.
